NEWBERRY'S CONVICTION

Truman H. Newberry, a Republican United States Senator from Michigan, has been convicted of criminal conspiracy in the election of 1918, by which he gained a seat in the Senate.

Reduced to simple terms, Newberry has been found guilty of buying his seat through the most prodigal and scandalous expenditure of money ever known to the history of American politics.

After a trial lasting two months, twelve men, by a unanimous vote, decided that the crime charged against this opulent representative of Old Grant Republicans was substantiated and the federal judge, in passing the sentence, assessed a $10,000 fine, and imposed a term of two years in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth.

In the meantime, Newberry has announced his intention of clinging on to the seat he holds in the Senate at Washington, and unless a Republican Senate has the honesty and the courage to expel him, he remains there, casting his one vote.

But for that one vote and the vote of LaFollette, the Republicans could never have organized the United States Senate in the present Congress. They could never have packed the foreign relations committee against the peace treaty. They would not have had the power to stack the Senate against every measure of reconstruction that the President has proposed.

That majority rested upon Truman H. Newberry, who stands now a convicted criminal, and Robert M. LaFollette, a pro-German slacker.

Pressly Memorial Institute, Egypt, has an active temperance society, which in 1918 secured 375 pledge signers aside from the students themselves.

2,333 Japanese students were studying in other countries in 1916.

Ever Get Bilious?
Try This

Take NR at once. Get digestive and eliminative organs working in harmony and relief is immediate. Never causes griping.

NR Tonight—Tomorrow Feel Right

When your liver goes on strike and you feel a sick headache and bilious spell coming on, instead of prodding your liver with dangerous calomel and lashing your bowels with strong, irritating purgatives, get out your box of mild, gentle-acting NR Tablets and take one right off.

Relief will come just as quickly and with it genuine, lasting benefit.

There will be no griping, gnawing pains or doubling stomach, no nausea, Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) work promptly and thoroughly, but the action is gentle, mild and soothing.

Relief comes through the action of Nature's Remedy on not only the liver, but on the whole digestive and eliminative system—the stomach, the bowels and even on the kidneys. Storing up accumulations of waste and body poisons that have been clogging the system are completely cleared out, the over-worked stomach is strengthened and the interrupted work of digestion and assimilation is resumed. The inactive liver goes to work with new vigor, the bowels are unburdened, the headache leaves, that dull, "dopey," want-to-crawl-down-a-hole feeling disappears, energy

"pep" and appetite return and you find yourself entirely, completely relieved.

There is no better proof of the great value of Nature's Remedy for biliousness and constipation than the fact that more than one million NR Tablets are used every day—more than five million boxes sold every year.

If you've not already done so, get a box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take the first tablet tonight. If your constipation is stubborn or persistent, continue to take one each night for a week or so.

Then note how you feel. Your bowels will be as regular as clock work, and you'll find yourself in better shape physically, mentally, every way than you've been in many a day. After that you need not take medicine every day. An occasional NR Tablet to keep your system in good condition will be sufficient, and you can always feel your best. Remember it is easier and cheaper to keep well than to get well. Just try it.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

Good Roads

(By J. Ogden Armour)

The country is entering a period of road-building. Projects which were planned during the war are being put into effect. The federal government has made large appropriations, to be spent conjointly with appropriations by the various states. Good roads have become a watchword of post-war progress.

There is occasion for reflection in the fact that the greatest of ancient empires was conspicuous for its road-building. The Roman roads were the railways and telegraph of an age that did not know steam and electricity. They were the pathways of the imperial couriers and the imperial legions. These roads were the girders that held the empire together. It is customary, today, to admire the Romans for their practical sagacity, nowhere better exemplified than in their road building.

In a manner, "history repeats itself," in our newly bestirred zeal for constructing good highways. What to the Romans was a national necessity, has become for us an urgent need; and this by virtue of a modern invention—the motor age. I look for much advancement to grow out of the "motor age," and I am certain that this advancement will be contingent upon the attention we give to the improvement of our roads.

Those of us who have made observations for two decades have seen wondrous changes resulting directly from the use of the pleasure automobile. Once the city was the city, and the country was the country. Today they merge into one another. The city man knows the country as never before—is glad to have access to it, and to live in it when possible. The country man knows the city and frequents it often. Small villages of yesterday have become the rural metropolises that one finds here and there, everywhere. This is all good, for it is well that a nation be knit together in the spirit of mutual understanding and in a reciprocity of advantages.

But there are better arguments for good roads than those which apply merely to the pleasure car. We are told, on the authority of the government, that farmers lose $300,000,000 yearly in marketing their crops, because of bad roads. That is too much to waste. We should contemplate this figure in connection with the high cost of living.

There is no more serious problem before us today than the matter of reducing the cost of getting the products of the farm to the table of the consumer. One step, at least, in the solution is plain—better roads.

As an instrument of economy the motor truck has not yet come into its own. Efficient servant as it is in certain restricted realms, it now awaits the further development of interurban and country highways to reach the measure of its full attainment. It has power and speed that put it outside the class of the horse-drawn vehicle, and a nimbleness and flexibility which gives it a certain advantage over the railways. It is my expectation to see it assume more and more the function of the short-haul" as its own peculiar province: in part, relieving the railways of those duties which they are least able to perform; and in part, expanding the field of our national transportation system.

I say, therefore, all speed to the good road movement! It will cheapen our methods of distribution and help to bring the people of our country closer to each other. I commend its common sense and practical wisdom. It may be less spectacular than some of our other national issues, but it strikes deep into the roots of fundamental progress.
